

Why is it that every time a new guy comes along, some one has to mess it up,i love my xm satellite radio, where i live there is not very many radio stations and what ones we have don't have the programing i want to hear.And what AM talk radio stations we have here don't come in good at all,I pay for what i want please don't mess it up leave satellite radio alone and let it grow.